An Evening with Richard Gaillardetz: "Wrestling with the Faith in Times of Scandal: Why Belonging to the Church Still Matters."

Dr. Richard R. Gaillardetz is the Joseph Professor of Catholic Systematic Theology at Boston College and is currently the chair of the theology department. He received his Ph.D. in systematic theology from the University of Notre Dame. Dr. Gaillardetz has published numerous articles and has authored or edited 13 books. Some of his more recent books include: Go into the Streets! The Welcoming Church of Pope Francis (Paulist Press, 2016) and An Unfinished Council: Vatican II, Pope Francis, and the Renewal of Catholicism (Liturgical Press, 2015).

Today the Church is challenged by a series of scandals: the sexual abuse of children by clergy and religious, the cover-up of this abuse, the indifference to the victims, and more recent attacks on Pope Francis from within the Church. These scandals have impacted severely on the People of God. What then keeps the remaining faithful, just 10% of all Catholics, engaged and constant in the practice of their faith?

Richard's presentation will reflect on the background to these scandals and address the question of continued belonging and the possibility of renewal, noting the commitment of the Australian bishops to convene a national plenary council in 2020.

Living and Dying Well

Christine Campbell has had an active and diverse career, in the union movement, teaching migrants, in the Caroline Chisholm Society, and as an electoral officer. Until her resignation at the November 2014 elections, she was the Labor MLA for Ascot Vale for 18 years.

Holding strong views on matters like family respect and bioethics, she believes that people should be living and dying well. In retirement, she is a key member of Care Alliance. This community think tank has been studying closely the proposed Victorian legislation on assisted dying that is likely to be introduced later this year, following the ministerial inquiry into “end of life choices” conducted in 2016.

The PUMPHOUSE HOTEL provides a spacious and comfortable atmosphere. Meals available from 6.00pm –7.30pm.
