The Royal Commission: Being Catholic in Public after all that has gone on

Fr Frank Brennan SJ, AO is an eminent advocate for justice on many fronts, including for reform of many aspects of practice within the Catholic Church.

In this presentation, he will be reflecting not so much on the findings of the Royal Commission into Institutional Child Abuse, or on the effect on victims. Instead, he will speak on the effect on the Catholic faithful at large – those who remain in the Church in the face of the shame and the sense of betrayal that rest with them.

What are the different reactions among them? Has the willingness of many even to admit membership of the Church suffered a mortal blow? Do they carry on as usual, but only in private? Will the public listen at all now to what the Church has to say on today's issues?

The PUMPHOUSE HOTEL provides a spacious and comfortable atmosphere. Meals available from 6.00pm – 7.30pm. Remember: Support the Pub that supports SIP – Dine at the Pumphouse!

Building a healthier Church: where to from here?

An evening of conversation with Bishop Vincent Long,
Maria Kirkwood and Francis Sullivan.

- Francis Sullivan - What are the challenges that are coming from the Royal Commission?
- Maria Kirkwood - Sharing leadership in a collaborative Church
- Bishop Vincent - What sort of Church should we be? How are you going to approach these issues in your Diocese?

Dear Jewish Friends,

As you celebrate the Festival of Rosh HaShanah we wish you "Shanah Tovah"! Blessings for this new year!

Our thoughts will continue to be with you as you observe Yom Kippur and the feast of Succoth. Succoth especially reminds both our communities of the biblical story of the wandering in the desert, the need for temporary dwellings and the people's dependence on God for quail and manna, for their daily bread.

Recently at the Jewish and Catholic Friendship Dinner we listened together both to the plight of refugees and to the richness of our traditions in relation to refugees. Maybe the invitation of Rosh HaShanah this year is for Jews and Catholics to work together for the needs of those around us and especially of refugees who seek to come to Australia? Together we can make our society and little more peaceful and a little more just, and so give honour to the Holy One together.

Be assured of the good wishes and prayers of your Catholic sisters and brothers. May you know the sweetness of this feast.

Very Reverend Denis Stanley,
Episcopal Vicar for Ecumenical and Interfaith Relations,
Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne

REFORMATION 500: JOINT CATHOLIC-LUTHERAN SERVICE OF COMMEMORATION

"In commemorating the 500th anniversary of the beginning of the Reformation this year, Catholics and Lutherans can now do so because the Holy Spirit has lead them on a journey from conflict into deeper communion. So from this vantage point the beginnings of the Reformation will be rightly remembered when Lutherans and Catholics hear together the Gospel of Jesus Christ and allow themselves to be called anew into community with the Lord.

I invite you to Evening Prayer together at St Johns Lutheran Church.

It is a time when Lutherans and Catholics can jointly rediscover the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in our time."

Archbishop Denis Hart
Catholic Archbishop of Melbourne

The service will feature liturgy from
"Common Prayer: From Conflict to Communion"
and the Bach cantata
"O ewiges Feuer, o Ursprung der Liebe" (BWV 34).

When: 7:00pm – 28th October 2017

Where: St Johns Lutheran Church
20 City Road, Southbank, Victoria
(Access via Southgate complex or City Road)
