Chaplaincy Sunday 2018

Donations are Tax deductible

Give hope by giving generously to Chaplaincy Sunday 2018,
Sunday 20th May.

The Melbourne Catholic Archbishop's Charitable Fund will be conducting its annual Chaplaincy Sunday Appeal in parishes to support the vital work of Catholic Chaplains in our community this Sunday, 20th May.

Our focus for 2018 is Prison Chaplaincy. The relationship and collaboration between prisoners and Chaplains whilst they are in prison is vital to restoring them back onto the road again to re-join society:

- With dignity and self-respect
- With a sense of hope and responsibility for new pathways
- With a sense of personal power and control over their own life, and hopefully
- With new skill sets and options.

Donations raised each year are directed towards supporting Chaplains who work with:

- People who are in custody in prison
- Young people in youth justice facilities
- Patients and their families in public hospitals
- People living with HIV/AIDS
- Seafarers.

WRITING WOMEN BACK INTO THE CHURCH

Women are present throughout the Gospels. They were present at every key point of Jesus' life, even at the tomb.

Since the Royal Commission, there has been a greater recognition of the role that women must play in the Church, but they have always been on the front line, sometimes in conflict with priests and bishops. Can the model of service and leadership by these "troublesome" Catholic women offer a better vision of the Church? How can we write them back into our stories?

Fatima Measham, a consulting editor and regular columnist at Eureka Street, also hosts the ChatterSquare podcast, which focuses on social change. She writes extensively on identity, social justice and the environment, and has been published by The Guardian, Meanjin and Right Now. She also appears regularly at writers' festivals and on radio to speak about politics and culture.

The PUMPHOUSE HOTEL provides a spacious and comfortable atmosphere. Meals available from 6.00pm – 7.30pm. Remember: Support the Pub that supports SIP – Dine at the Pumphouse!
