Thank you to all our generous supporters who enable this remarkable work to continue.

Remember on Monday 18th June we hope at least two or three extra volunteers will join the ranks and help out.

The meetings are held monthly at The Parkville Hotel (Naughtons) in a room adjacent to the dining area.

Call for volunteers to assist housing program for refugees

CatholicCare and St Vincent's Health Australia recently partnered to support Iraqi and Syrian refugees by housing them in self-contained units on the site of St Vincent's Health Care Services in Eltham, Melbourne. Known as The Eltham Project, the units provided much needed temporary emergency accommodation to dozens of refugee families and individuals.

Unfortunately, the refugee housing project is due to conclude at the end of September this year.

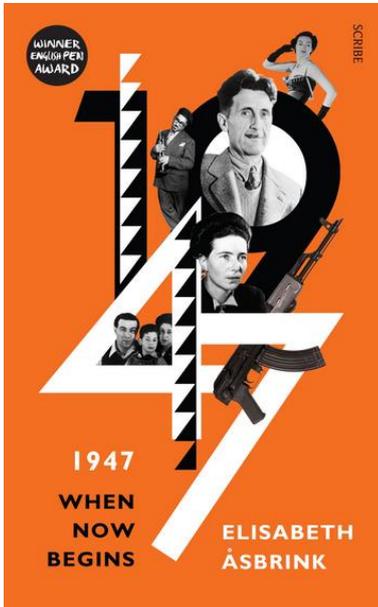

Netty Horton, recently appointed CEO of CatholicCare, has put out an urgent call for volunteers from the Melbourne community to help Iraqi and Syrian refugee families look for and transition into new longer term accommodation.

CatholicCare is also keen to hear from anyone in the community who may have information on low-cost accommodation for medium to long term lease. This could be anything from houses, apartments, villa units, bungalows, granny flats or cabins in Melbourne.

Any offers of assistance, from volunteering to real estate, are welcome. CatholicCare may be contacted by phone, email or via their website.
