Who Are We On Our Planet Earth Today? What Are Our Collective and Individual Roles? How Do We Make A Difference?

"I urgently appeal, then, for a new dialogue about how we are shaping the future of our planet. We need a conversation which includes everyone, since the environmental challenge we are undergoing, and its human roots, concern and affect us all."

Pope Francis Laudato Si'

Sr Gail Worcelo is the co-founder (with the late Thomas Berry) of Green Mountain Monastery in Vermont, USA, which is dedicated to the healing and protection of the Earth.

Gail will lead us in an exploration of understanding ourselves as part of a vast unfolding universe – Calling us to be present in the universe with wonder, hopefulness and action.

"The great mistake, or the greater difficulty of civilization, particularly of modern western civilization, is to isolate human affairs from the larger Earth Community"

Reframing Retirement

Day of Reflection
Saturday 7 July 2018, 10am-4pm

*Facilitator: Simon Jenkinson, BA(Hons),
MS(Clin Psych), Grad Dip Spir Dir*

Does our sense of vocation, or calling,
end with RETIREMENT?

Does the final 'third' of life signal a decline,
or an opportunity to encounter
an unexplored terrain of life ... and of oneself?

And what can our faith journey become,
at this time of transition?

Whether voluntary or involuntary, RETIREMENT can be a wake-up call, summoning us to reframe our vision and our purpose.

Cost $60

(Morning Tea provided; BYO lunch)

Plenary Council 2020 planning takes off in Melbourne

Thursday 7 June 2018

Media and Communications Office

This week, a team of Church leaders met in Melbourne to begin planning the first stage of the journey to the Plenary Council 2020 for the Archdiocese.

Leading the group were Lana Turvey-Collins, the Plenary Council Facilitator, and Cathy Jenkins, Melbourne's Plenary Council coordinator from the Archbishop's Office for Evangelisation (AOFE).

Among the attendees were Sherry Balcombe (Coordinator, Aboriginal Catholic Ministry Victoria), Kevin Meese (Director, Catholic Mission in Melbourne), Tina Mattei (Editor, Melbourne Catholic), Paul Zammit (Director Pastoral Services, CatholicCare), Mary Ryan (Coordinator, Adult Faith Formation, AOFE), Tiffany Davis (Assistant Director, AOFE), Rev Dr Brendan Reed (Chair, AOFE Advisory Group; Parish Priest of Deepdene/Balwyn and Camberwell Parishes), Rev Mark Reynolds (Member, AOFE Advisory Group; Parish Priest of Surrey Hills & Wattle Park Parishes), Rev Hien Vu (Member, AOFE Advisory Group; Parish Priest of Flemington & Kensington Parishes) and Jacqui Giuliano (Coordinator, Parish Leadership Support, AOFE).

A Plenary Council is the highest formal gathering of all local churches in a country and it has been 80 years since the last one was held in Australia. The council presents an opportunity for the Catholic community in Australia to listen to and converse with one another and, guided by the Holy Spirit, to consider the future, role and relevance of the Catholic Church in Australia.

'The Plenary Council process opens for us an opportunity to engage people in conversations about God and the Church,' said AOFE's Cathy Jenkins. 'All around the country people will gather and develop a habit of dialogue as we reflect upon the question: "what do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?"'

'Further details specific to the Melbourne Archdiocese will be available from the first week of July,' added Cathy.

Mission today and tomorrow lectures

Presented by Columbans:

Fr Noel Connolly and Rev Dr Patrick McInerney

Date: Wednesday 20 June, 2018

Time: 7.30pm - 10.00pm

Venue: Cardinal Knox Lecture Theatre,

Australian Catholic University,

383 Albert Street, East Melbourne Vic 3002

Lecture Overview – Fr Noel Connolly

Fr Noel will be talking on the Columban missionary contribution to the Australian Church and the unique role of a returned overseas missionary in our contemporary multicultural church and society.

Lecture Overview – Rev Dr Patrick McInerney

Dialogue as the new mode of mission or of evangelisation for our day.

Interreligious dialogue is acknowledged as one of the essential components of mission. Dialogue is also the mode in which all the other components of mission - Christian presence, work for justice, liturgy and prayer, proclamation and catechesis, and stewardship of creation - are to be carried out.

RSVP: Friday 8 June, 2018

A Night at Home - June 12th 2018

Last week two Australian Jewish Professionals shared their experiences during and after World War II in Europe.

Henry Ekert retired chief of Haematology at The Royal Children's Hospital, and Peter Barta, a Melbourne dentist, shared their experiences of being a Jewish child in Nazi occupied Europe.

The Parish House was packed with parishioners and friends.

Justin Kelly, retired Director of Surgery at The Royal Children's Hospital, together with wife Elaine hosted a wonderful night.

The Jewish Psalm verse "Even the sparrow finds a home" is our parish motto.
