Winter Appeal

This weekend we wish to finalise our annual winter appeal.

Contribution envelopes are available in the porch of the church and may be placed in the collection baskets at Mass.

A credit card facility will be available in the porch at the conclusion of Mass.

Taxation Receipts will be issued to all contributors who provide name and address.

A full financial report will be given soon to sum up the appeal.

Copies of the Parish Council Constitution are available in the Church porch.

Vote on the Parish Council Constitution on Saturday 20 and Sunday 21 July 2019 masses

Following a review of your feedback on the exposure draft of the Constitution the interim Parish Council has agreed to put a final version of it to a vote. Copies will be available from the porch of the Church. Rule 11 of the Constitution requires that parishioners receive 21 days' notice of a meeting to adopt the Constitution. We therefore notify you that at each of the three masses on Saturday 20 and Sunday 21 July a member of the Parish Council will attend and conduct a vote by show of hands on the following resolutions:

We the parishioners of St Carthages:

- 1. Approve the terms of the Constitution circulated to us; and
- 2. Appoint the following persons to the interim parish council prior to elections being held under the Constitution in 2020: Fr. Michael Elligate, Heather Weedon, Berise Heasley, Rosemary Sheehan, Richard Olive, Trish McNamara, Jack Rendle and Mark Perica.

Dr. Berise Heasley's Book Launch

Recently Dr. Berise Launched her book "Call No One Father" with parishioners and friends.

The book explores the burning issue of clericalism In the Church today.

Clericalism is a belief that ordained Priests and Bishops run the Church from a position of being higher than lay people. Secrecy and non-accountability are the worrying characteristics. Fr. Michael Elligate wrote the opening reflection for the book.

HELDER CAMARA LECTURE

Servant leadership in the spirit of Pope Francis

WEDNESDAY 17 JULY | 5pm – 6.30pm

The Oratory, Newman College

887 Swanston Street, Parkville VIC 3052

His Eminence, Cardinal John Dew, Archbishop of Wellington will deliver a lecture on Servant leadership in the spirit of Pope Francis. Cardinal John Dew was appointed a Cardinal by Pope Francis. He is widely known and admired for his pastoral leadership, his vision and for striving to implement Pope Francis's call that we become ever more a church of mercy and hope. Following the lecture, there will be a response by Fr Frank Brennan SJ followed by question and answer session.

A contribution to the forthcoming Plenary Council of the Church in Australia.
