Exiles at Home: What our contempt for nature is costing us

TIM WINTON

Wednesday, February 26th, 2025 @ 12.30pm

Venue: Hampton RSL

25 Holyrood Street, Hampton

Timothy John Winton AO is an Australian writer. He has written novels, children's books, non-fiction books, and short stories. In 1997, he was named a National Living Treasure by the National Trust of Australia and has won the Miles Franklin Award four times.

Tim is actively involved in many facets of the Australian environmental movement. He is a patron of the Australian marine Conservation Society. and is involved in many of their campaigns, notably their work in raising awareness about sustainable seafood consumption. His latest novel, Juice, looks at the impact of climate change.

This is a video of a lecture hosted by the Centre for Public Christianity, in Sydney, in November 2024. It is challenging and inspirational and as many as possible, should see it.
