

Leg five – Footscray

Day 24: Tuesday 17th June - Footscray Park to the Shrine of Remembrance

Walk Information: Travis Lovett at Footscray Park for the final approach into the city. This stage follows the Maribyrnong River pathway, crosses the Moonee Ponds Creek shared trail, and then follows the Birrarung (Yarra River) corridor into the heart of Melbourne, concluding at Camp Sovereignty in the Royal Botanic Gardens, South Yarra (access via Linlithgow Avenue).

Walking Difficulty: Moderate, the route follows walking paths and city roads. The first part of the route takes walkers over a footbridge with no wheelchair access.

Distance: Approximately 10 km

Registrations Open: 10:45 AM

Walk Start Time: 11:30 AM

Start Location: Footscray Park, entrance off Farnsworth Ave past the Footscray City Rowing Club.

Parking: There is limited parking Victoria University or Flemington Racecourse

Train: Footscray Park is a 20 minute walk from Footscray train station

Walk Finish Time (estimate): 3:00 PM

Finish Location: Camp Sovereignty in the Royal Botanic Gardens, South Yarra

Toilets: There will be toilets at both the start and finish points

What else is on during the day? Whitten Oval Community Event, Footscray, 9am-10:30am

What to bring (see FAQs for further details):

- Food and water for the day - there will be limited access to refreshments. Please bring a reusable water bottle.
- Comfortable walking shoes and clothing suitable for the weather; and wear your values to show your support.
- The Walk will go ahead rain, hail or shine - please come prepared.
- You are responsible for your own transport to and from the event. Each walk endpoint will be accessible by public transport or pickup.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs): HERE

Terms and Conditions (T&Cs): A reminder that all walkers must abide by the event, please ensure you review them before you participate HERE

Please note: The team is unable to provide transport to or from the start and finish points and cannot support camping along the walking route. Parts of the track are rough and unsuitable for prams or bikes. Please take all rubbish home with you.