ST CARTHAGE'S NEWSLETTER

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

Today's readings can be accessed in full via Our Website

First Reading: Mal 3:19-20. Evildoers will be destroyed; those who fear God will be saved.

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice.

Second Reading: 2 Thes 3:7-12. Work hard and earn your keep.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Lift up your heads and see; your redemption is near at hand. Alleluia!

Gospel: Lk 21:5-19. Patiently endure the trials you are sure to face for Jesus.

November, the month of saints and souls

This month, as the church places special significance on the feasts of All Saints and All Souls, we pray for all those who have preceded us to be in God's presence and ask their intercessions that we may remain in hope and expectation of God's Glory.

St Carthage's University Parish respectfully acknowledge that we are on the traditional territory of the Wurundjeri People. We offer our gratitude to the First Nations for their care for, and teachings about, our earth and our relations. May we honour those teachings.

"Compiled against a background of growing disillusionment with the institutional church, the evident weakening of what was formerly called Christendom and the statistical evidence of serious decline in religion generally in our country, its purpose is to rediscover the place of religion in our society and how we might engage as faithful Catholic Christians with the wider Australian culture."

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS FOR THE SIXTH WORLD DAY OF THE POOR

13 November 2022, Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

For your sakes Christ became poor (cf. 2 Cor 8:9)

The poverty that kills is squalor, the daughter of injustice, exploitation, violence and the unjust distribution of resources. It is a hopeless and implacable poverty, imposed by the throwaway culture that offers neither future prospects nor avenues of escape.

The poverty that sets us free, on the other hand, is one that results from a responsible decision to cast off all dead weight and concentrate on what is essential.
