Christopher West in Melbourne

I had the incredible fortune of attending the Christopher West evening, Made for More, in Mill Park. No doubt Chris must witness every time he delivers the Good News, the immense Joy of all who attend, as was the case of last Tuesday. The end result of his delivery of John Paul II's Theology of the Body left all who attended that evening in an atmosphere of Hope and Joy.

My greatest accomplishment of the evening was managing to get all my children there as well. It was well worth the effort after hearing their experiences of the evening.

If you missed him this time around you have the chance of catching him in April when you can sign up to the first of a planned series of courses available to all Australians.

(As for my small claim-to-fame pic above, Chris was happy to indulge me after I snuck up behind him whilst he was busy signing books. On ya Chris!)

The Synod on Synodality - Why we should care

7.30 - 8.45pm, Thursday 2 February 2023

SYNODALITY is a Church word for inclusive leadership, listening to the sense of faith of the faithful, a rejection of autocratic and patriarchal decision-making.

Pope Francis has called a two-part Synod on Synodality in Rome in 2023 and 2024.

The Bishops' Conferences of Oceania (Australia, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea and the Pacific) are meeting in Fiji early February to finalise their submission to the Synod on Synodality.

The submissions from all continents will be the basis for the Synod.

Moderator: Christina Reymer - 'Be the Change Aotearoa/New Zealand'

Introduction: Archbishop Timothy Costelloe President, Australian Catholic Bishops Conference

This Synod event is on Thursday 2 February 2023 at 7.30pm AEDT. Garratt Publishing and YTU (University of Divinity) are sponsoring this important contribution to Pope Francis' commitment to synodality in the Church.

Synodality requires understanding, acceptance and implementation by all Catholics if the Church is to become truly synodal, namely inclusive leadership and listening to the sense of faith of the faithful. That applies particularly in the context of Francis' Synod on Synodality.

This is an opportunity for Catholics throughout Australasia to learn about the Working Document for the Continental Stage released by the Synod of Bishops Secretariat, Enlarge the Space of Your Tent (DCS) as our bishops prepare their response in early

February. Full Flyers can be found on our Website under the post 'Synodality' or access by
